

Tuesday, October 19, 1948

Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia

Vol. XXI, No. 3

Bullet To Hold Presidential Election on M. W. Campus

Since the current topic of discussion over the radio and in the newspapers is the presidential election, the Bullet has decided to hold an election here on Mary Washington's campus.

It is a fact, according to men, that women have no minds of their own. Most males say that all women vote the same way their husbands or fathers vote. The Bullet feels that here is an opportunity to prove that women can make up their own minds in an election.

Gallup Poll Data Given
According to a recent national Gallup Poll, Dewey was leading with 46 1/2 per cent. Truman received 39 per cent of the polled votes. Wallace polled 3 1/2 per cent and Thurmond was close behind with 2 per cent. Nine per cent of the people interviewed were undecided and expressed no opinion.

Since Mary Washington has students from all sections of the country the Bullet wishes to see how the MWC students' vote will compare with the national election results on November 2.

All M.W.C. students are qualified to vote in the Bullet Presidential Election. The voting booth will be outside of Chandler. The exact date will be announced later.

Famous Designers To Plan Wardrobe for Maid of Cotton

More than twenty-five top American fashion designers will create high-style cotton costumes especially for the 1949 Maid of Cotton, the National Cotton Council announced recently.

These designers will outfit the 1949 Maid with a complete collection of all-occasion cottons to wear on a six-month tour of more than forty fashion centers in the United States and abroad.

Among the famous designers who will play a part in styling the fabulous cotton wardrobe are William Bass, Carolyn Schnurer, Claire McCardell, Charles Arnour, Toni Owen, Louella Allierino, Tina Leser, Frances Sidner, Herbert Sondheim, and Emma Domb.

Costumes Good for All Season

The girl who is selected 1949 Maid of Cotton will wear the cotton costumes in her role as the cotton industry's fashion and goodwill ambassador. Her wardrobe will show cotton as an all-purpose, all-season high fashion fabric to style-conscious women throughout the country.

The 1949 Maid's collection will represent the newest and smartest cottons of the season. Her wardrobe will include cottons for every occasion, from playtime and sports ensembles to sophisticated dinner gowns. Cotton fabrics of every description, from warm, wintry velvets and corduroys to fresh, crisp summer piques and chambrays, will be used in the striking designs.

Annual Pictures Now Being Taken

The pictures for the Battlefield annual are now being taken by James Colonna, photographer from the Colonna Studios in New York City.

On the bulletin boards of Willard, Virginia, Westmoreland, and Ball freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors respectively will find the time schedules listed.

Student Poets Can Have Their Poems Printed

Students who write poetry and who like to see it in print may have it published in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry. The deadline for entries in November 5th.

There are no charges for inclusion of poetry in the annual and the recognition of publication is a definite credit to the student and to his school. This publication comes out every year and there are many important colleges that are represented in the annual. Each entry must be on a separate piece of paper and each one must carry the following statement: "The verse entitled ' . . . ' is my own effort." Also each entry must bear the author's name, home address, the nature of the college he attends.

Those interested are urged to send their work to National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Ave., Los Angeles 34, California.

To Meet Many Celebrities

The Maid of Cotton will wear the beautiful cotton collection as she meets senators, representatives, diplomats, movie stars, and other celebrities to deliver King Cotton's goodwill message. She will appear in the fashionable costumes at cotton celebrations and social events staged especially in her honor in each of the cities she visits.

The girl who is chosen to wear the cotton wardrobe as 1949 Maid of Cotton will be a native of one of the cotton-producing states, unmarried, at least 5 feet 3 inches tall, and between the ages of 19 and 25. The contest to select the new Maid has recently opened, and the winner will be announced early in January at contest finals in Memphis.

Applications for the 1949 Maid of Cotton contest are now being received by the National Cotton Council in Memphis, which sponsors the tour along with the Memphis Cotton Carnival, and the Memphis, New York, and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges.

Epaulet Editor Needs Larger Staff

Joan Timberlake, editor of the Epaulet, the literary magazine of M.W.C., has announced that more students are needed for the staff. The Epaulet comes out four times a year, and the first issue will be out the last of November.

Joan further stated that students are invited to contribute original stories, poems, and articles. All material submitted will be given careful consideration. The suggestion box is located outside Dr. Shankle's office, in Chandler.

Contest Opens To Stimulate Young Writers

The National Five Arts Award, Inc., a non-profit organization, designed to discover, aid, and stimulate creative writing in the colleges and universities in the United States has announced the first of its annual contests for its Awards and Fellowships totalling one hundred thousand dollars.

Open to all writers in the fields of the full length play, the radio script, the popular song, the screen original, the story and the short story. There are six cash Awards in each category, a $2,000 first prize, a $1,000 second prize and four prizes of $500 each. In addition, and in a special effort to obtain recognition and financial assistance for young writers, $70,000 of the total Awards will be granted in the form of 140 Fellowships of $500 each.

The Fellowships, like the cash prizes, will be awarded on the basis of merit alone, rather than age or academic degrees, and will be granted to writers of talent and promise. Further, such writers may use the fellowship money in whatever manner will best further their writing careers for it is not conditioned upon project outlines or specific writing or study commitments.

The contests, which are open to all writers, require a two dollar entry fee on the first manuscript submitted, and a one dollar fee for each additional entry. Closing date of the contests is January 31, 1949. Announcement of the Normandy Pen Awards and Fellowships will be made April 1, 1949, or as soon thereafter as possible.

Each category will be judged by a panel of three, all writers, critics or producers of national reputation and distinction in the particular field in which he or she acts as a judge.

The address of The National Five Arts Award Inc. is 715 Fifth Avenue, New York 22, N. Y.

Riley Elected Frosh President

Pat Riley was elected president of the freshman class on October 11.

Pat spent her early childhood in Washington, D. C. where she was born. When she was five, the family moved to Richmond, and later to Birmingham, Alabama. In Birmingham she attended Ramsey High School.

In high school Pat was the secretary of the senior class, chairman of the health committee, president of the biology class, president and secretary of the National Thespians, member of the National Honor Society, a cheerleader for two years, and took part in the senior play.

Pat Lists Hobbies
This five-foot eight-inch lass with a short black bob and brown eyes likes the West. She is an ardent baseball fan, likes to knit, dance, read, eat, and participate in all sports.

Pat was deeply impressed by the neatness and beauty of the campus here.

She hopes to graduate from Mary Washington with a major in English or primary education. After graduation she plans to teach or to marry.

Tentative Schedule Made For Trips on College Bus

Blood Bank Visits Fredericksburg; Response Is Poor

The last time the Blood Bank was in Fredericksburg, 140 donors were sought by the Red Cross. It was assumed that as many as 40 would be rejected and that donations would total 100 pints of blood. This was the goal established for Fredericksburg (population 10,000), surrounding counties, and Mary Washington College. However, not even 140 people responded. Of the final number, 19 college girls were donors. The Red Cross saw in that number that the college girl was contributing in larger proportion than the city or counties. It should be borne in mind also that only the girl who was 18 or over was eligible. This very fact eliminated from the student personnel at least 650 students. There would have been more girls who could have secured permission in time to be donors if the date had not been so close to the opening of school.

Second Bank to be Held
The next day for the Blood Bank to visit Fredericksburg is Tuesday, January 18, 1949. It is generally believed that there will be a large number of girls who will be donors on that date. During the war, the Mary Washington girls made a splendid contribution as donors and interest in blood donation was sustained throughout the war.

Sound-Color Film 'Historic Kenmore' To Be Shown Here

On Friday evening, Oct. 22 at 8 p. m., the Kenmore Association, in conjunction with Mary Washington College, will show for the first time in Fredericksburg, its sound-color 16mm motion picture entitled "Historic Kenmore." A short concert by the college Glee Club will precede the showing of the film in the auditorium of George Washington Hall. The student body, faculty and staff, townspeople, and friends are invited to attend.

Historic shrines in Fredericksburg, scenes at the college and at "Brompton" and episodes enacted in the rooms of the Kenmore Mansion are shown in the picture and the continuity centers around two young tourists. The film, made last May, is directed by Jack Warfield, assistant professor of dramatic arts, assisted by Mrs. Catesby Willis Stewart, also of the faculty.

The film can be obtained on a loan basis from the Department of Conservation and Development, Division of Publicity and Advertising, 914 Capitol Street, Richmond, and requests have already been booked from 30 states.

It's suggested the students mail home copies of the program especially printed for this "premiere" as it gives an interesting glimpse of the college's environment.

Charlottesville

Anyone interested in taking a bus to Charlottesville, Saturday, October 23 at 12:30 may contact Peggy MacLord, Betty Lewis 29, or Drusilla Howson, Virginia 127 by Wednesday.

Tentative schedules for trips on Mary Washington's new bus have been decided upon by the faculty committee on field trips and tours, headed by Miss Swander. Other members of the committee include Mr. Woodward, Mr. Faulkner, Dean Alvey and Dr. Darter.

Miss Swander hopes that the bus will be used to attend musical functions, to present forums, or to take part in purely social affairs. She feels that the bus will greatly aid students who are not familiar with the culture of the surrounding area because it will provide an economical as well as a convenient way for students to become acquainted with Virginia.

Mary Washington College has been planning to purchase a bus since 1939 and an order was placed in 1940. This order was cancelled however, at the onset of the war.

Bus Schedules Outlined
The following is a list of the trips that have been planned:

Tuesday, October 19—Zoology field trip to see the Washington zoo.

Friday, October 22—Band members will play for Fordham-Georgetown game at Griffith Stadium in Washington.

Saturday, October 23—A group of M.W.C. girls will leave for Annapolis, Maryland, to be the guests of St. John's College and will return Sunday afternoon.

Saturday, October 30—State hockey meet.

Sunday, October 31—Dr. Quenzel will be in charge of a sight-seeing trip to Washington which will include Library of Congress and the Folger Shakespearean Library.

Saturday, November 6—Convention of college students of the state. The bus will leave for Natural Bridge, Virginia, on Saturday and return Sunday evening.

Saturday, November 13—Members of the choir will give a concert and be guests at a dance at Virginia Military Institute.

Sunday, November 14—A trip has been planned to visit the historical shrines in Richmond. There is a possibility that this trip may be cancelled in favor of a return trip to Williamsburg.

Tuesday, November 16—Zoology field trip.

Sunday, November 21—Trip to Washington to visit the art galleries.

Miss Swander said that she hopes the bus will enlarge educational and social opportunities for all M.W.C. students.

Alpha Psi Omega Elects New Sponsor

Alpha Psi Omega, the dramatic fraternity on the campus, has chosen William Russell Walther to be its sponsor for the current year. Mr. Walther is a well known figure around the college and can most often be seen riding to and from the stables in his station wagon that is usually crowded with girls who go to the stables every day to receive riding lessons.

Ever since he has been a member of Alpha Psi Omega Mr. Walther has shown a keen interest in the activities of the organization. He has appeared in several plays here at the college, the last being "The Silver Cord" which was presented by Alpha Psi Omega last March.

"Without the interest shown and the help given by Mr. Walther, the many 'shindigs' which Alpha Psi Omega has had could never have been such a success," says Jean Achenbach, 1948-49 president of the organization.

Remember Campus Chest

Read The Editorials Then Write Us Your Opinions

A black and white portrait of a young man with dark hair, smiling. He is wearing a light-colored suit jacket, a white shirt, and a dark bow tie with a pattern. The background is dark and textured.

"This is probably due to the unique structure of the rounded foundation. When being bombed, the inhabitants could feel the bunkers actually rocking. Imagine a mob of panicky people, crowded together for as long as twenty-four hours, and maybe you can grasp the attitude of some of these Germans towards Americans. There are some students among them who are very optimistic about the future. They are, how-

ART
Photography SEE PAGE 222 Pat Bradshaw, Ginnie Lee Downer

Keep your eye on up and coming warblers Patti Page and Kay Starr . . . Sammy Kaye's face was picked by the Artists' League as "one of the 10 most provocative in the world" . . . fortunately they do not have to deal with his music. . . . Stan Kenton is scheduled for a D. C. armory concert October 31 . . . What's happened to Frankie Laine's popularity on campus? He's still got the same voice you know, and he's still turning out nice ones. For those weekend blues try "Monday Again" and just nice listening pick up on "Thanks For You"—both on Mercury . . . At the present time our favorite tunes are "Whispering" as done by that fine chorus of Virginia rosters after a touchdown. That's one tune we never get tired of hearing.

Before accepting her position at Mary Washington, Dr. Englemann did graduate work at Leland Stanford University and taught at Smith College, Wilson College, and Texas Christian University.

"Cavalry Response to Call," another story in this issue, tells us that Mr. Walther was asked by the Mayor and the Chief of Police for the services of three mounted troopers. These girls received their call at midnight Thursday. They spent long, hectic hours directing McDowell: Didn't you have a brother in this course last year?"

Student: "No, sir; it was I. I'm taking it over again."

McDowell: "Extraordinary resemblance, though — extraordinary."

McDowell: "Extraordinary resemblance, though — extraordinary."

"It's high time we recommended complete separation of the Hot and-Cool Departments"

Roots of Culture

YOUR BIRTHSTONE AND ITS MEANING

OCTOBER--OPAL OR TOURMALINE

ROMANS CALLED THE SPLENDID, FLASHING OPAL "CHILD BEAUTIFUL AS LOVE." THEY CONSIDERED IT AN AMULET AGAINST ILLNESS.

MARK ANTONY (83-308.C.)
PROSCRIBED ROMAN SENATOR
NONIUS, TO OBTAIN HIS GLORIOUS OPAL, "LARGE AS A HAZEL NUT" BUT NONIUS ESCAPED WITH HIS GEM.

THE OCTOBER-BORN INCLUDE CELEBRATED LAWYERS, JUDGES, ACTORS, DANCERS, ART CONNOISSEURS, INTERIOR DECORATORS

TWO YOUNG MAINE MEN DISCOVERED A FORTUNE IN BEAUTIFUL, MULTI-COLORED TOURMALINES (1820), SOON SCATTERED BY NEIGHBORS IGNORANT OF THEIR VALUE.

BOTH THE GLORIOUS OPAL AND THE LOVELY TOURMALINE SIGNIFY HOPE AND PURITY.

Copyright 1948 Jic

PERSONALS

Seems those Randolph-Macon fellows are making MWC girls a habit. Frances McGlothlin, Kitten Whitlow, Polly Bridges, Nancy Morris, and Hilda Jones went down this weekend. Hilda came back with an SFE frat pin and a very bright gleam in her eye.

Miss Susan Bettcher and Jane Bludgett spent the week-end of October 9 and 10 in New Haven where they attended the Yale game.

Betty Stoner, Helen Chiles, and Lola Murray spent this past week-end at W. & L. homecomings.

Georgia Daniels, Joyce Hamilton, Mike Charlton, and Gretchen Anderson also went to W. & L. homecomings.

Miss Betty Russell and Catherine Newton spent the weekend of October 9 at Maryland University.

Miss Leah Patterson spent the weekend at Miss Elaine West's home in Arlington, Virginia.

Martha Woolley and Dolores Desmond spent the weekend at U. of Va.

Miss Margorie and Corbetta Gibson spent last weekend at Yale University in New Haven, Conn.

Miss Betty Dickinson accompanied Ruth and Shirley Williams to their home near Providence, Rhode Island.

Miss Helen Strickler spent last weekend at her home near Welch, West Virginia.

Margaret Thompson was among those who saw the V. P. I. game in Roanoke last weekend.

Miss Charlotte Massey spent last weekend at her home in Richmond where she saw her man from V. P. I.

Marie Payne met her man from V. P. I. in Richmond the weekend of October 16-17.

Jinny Pierce, Anne Wright, Lucy Ring, Kit Parker, Jo Thornton, Irene Abbey, Helen Bounds, Co-Co Reid, went to a hop at West Point this weekend.

Betsy Smith attended The Navy-Missouri game in Baltimore, Saturday.

Peggy Cuthrell spent the weekend at her home in Portsmouth.

Science Club Has Initiation

The Science Club, sponsored by Dr. William Castle, organized to promote interest in the scientific world, held its initiation on October 18 at a cabin party. Their membership drive was held on Monday, October 11 and from those who signed up a selected group was chosen. The club this year hopes to have as their projects a display of geological rocks here at Mary Washington and to take various trips to Washington, D. C. and Charlottesville.

Although the club is limited to upper classmen, all freshmen are cordially invited to attend their meetings, held the fourth Monday of each month, and to go on the trips of the year.

"And if I refuse will you commit suicide?"

"That has been my usual custom."

"Darling your waist is the smallest I've ever seen."

"Of corset is."

"Your girl is spoiled, isn't she?"

"No, that's just the perfume she's been wearing."

Ideal Dates; Ideal Mates

Salt Lake City, Utah (ACP)—A poll taken by a writer for The Utah Chronicle comes up with the following information on ideal dates and ideal mates.

It was found that there is a definite contrast between the things a man expects of his prospective bride and the things he looks for when asking for a date.

Fellows wanted the following in a date: 1. A good conversationalist, 2. a good dancer, 3. ability to mix with any crowd, 4. a sense of humor. Other qualities desired were versatility, sparing use of makeup and punctuality. Intelligence ranked very low on the date list.

Requirement given for a good wife were: good manager, good companion, good cook, socially able to meet his friends and business associates, trustworthy, loyal, helpful, kind and thrifty.

The women had some definite ideas on future husbands. She wants him to be physically taller, larger and heavier; she wants him to be better in athletics than she is; she wants him to be congenial; is; she wants him to be a good provider.

Besides all this the college woman of today wants common interests with the man; she wants him to be either more intelligent or to have a higher education than she has; she wants him to be of the same religion.

Alpha Phi Sigma To Have Initiation

Alpha Phi Sigma, the honorary scholastic fraternity of Mary Washington college, will initiate its new members in the latter part of October or the first of November.

The fraternity admits freshmen only if they achieved the honor of being valedictorian or salutatorian at their high school. Students at Mary Washington are eligible to enter if they receive thirty quality points for two consecutive semesters, or forty quality points for one semester.

Sally Shopper Says

Because so many of us have been thinking of the clothes we want to wear to the various "sporty" events that are coming along fast and furious, we scouted around town this week looking for things that will be casual—and things that will be good "match-makers" with the rest of your wardrobe.

We're especially fond of the blouses we found at Hick's Five-Ninety-Eight Shop. Of sanforized cotton, they are the "Ship 'n Shore" casuals you've seen advertised in Life. We like them especially 'cause you can wear them so well with sport skirts or with suits—and they look wonderful with a gay printed scarf. Either long- or short-sleeved with a Peter Pan collar, or long-sleeved with a tailored collar—in sizes 32-40—they cost $2.98.

To further round out your sports wardrobe, Carley's has just received a selection of Sporteen skirts that are wonderful! Currently advertised in "Mademoiselle" there are plaids that are really stunning—including a Scotch plaid that is one of the best-looking we've seen this season. It's all-round pleated and will be perfect not only for class, but, with hose and heels, will do you more than justice for games, horse shows, and all. There's a basic gray, belted all-round, complete with large, roomy pockets that would be a good addition to your wardrobe. We found some very good-looking Jantzen sweaters—Jacquards—in all combinations of designs and colors. And one sweater, in particular, went over big with us. Of a soft wool, resembling cashmere, it is the new "shortie" length—just below your waist. The neckline is small and snug; but it was the sleeve that won us over. Narrow, it is bracelet-length, slanted, with a very finely-finished cuff. The sweater comes in slate, blue, green, brown and white.

Lynn Perkins has just received a shipment of pure silk scarves that are just lovely, in color combinations that are new and different. One that we think is extremely good-looking combines gun-metal with an odd shade of aqua. Another contains contrasting shades of cocoa, brown, yellow and moss green. Prices range from $1.95 to $3.95. If you're looking for a blouse that will go anywhere from complete casualness to semi-dress, you'll find here a selection of side-zipped over-blouses in new combinations of the current shades. There is one, for instance which is of varying stripes of hunter green and smoke gray—with a narrow strip of carmine running through. The blouses have cap sleeves and those good-looking mandarin collars—and they're $6.95.

We found here, too, cotton jersey "T" shirts—turtle neck, long-sleeved, in black or white. Perfect for suits—and you may have them monogrammed—they're $2.25.

Do Girls Give Boys a Chance

Muncie, Ind. (ACP)—An editorial writer of The Ball State News asks, "Is the age of chivalry dead? Look around the campus and give your opinion. Remember, fellows, women are still susceptible to courteous attention. But, girl, do you give the boys a chance? "How many of you feminine creatures bend swiftly to pick up an accidentally dropped handkerchief, pencil or book. Wait just a second longer and give the opposite sex a chance to show his gentility by obtaining your belonging without danger of bumping heads. Do most of you girls rush headlong through doors or walk so sedately enough to allow a possible gentleman nearby to reach the portal in advance?"

"No kidding, etiquette is something to think about even if you don't have a home ec. class. What doesn't come under this heading of campus etiquette? Public affection? You know what's right. 'Nuff said. Smokers, it's still considered perfectly normal to ask permission to smoke in groups.

"Thank-you note to room-mate's parents for an enjoyable weekend should be sent within three or four days. Speaking etiquette ranks high in college, too. It's downright rude to try not to be friendly by breaking into smiles before some and staring though others. Even if you're late to one of an endless chain of meetings the rule still holds that interrupters of conversation are not admired."

WANTED: Information leading to the exact number of occupants in the House of Lost Souls.

A true music lover is a person who, when he hears a soprano in the bathroom, puts his ear to the keyhole.

—She: "Where is your chivalry?"
—He: "I traded it in on a Buick."
Civil Service: something you get in restaurants between wars.

Dawn Patrol . . .
Station WMWC . . .
590 on your dial . . .
8:00-9:00, Mon. through Fri.

Writer Finds Co-Ed's Diary

A feature writer for The Daily Northwestern discovers "a little anecdote on life as it's lived by our fair coeds. It wasn't written today or even yesterday but back in the good old gay nineties.

"It's the diary of a queen—one of the gals that was the aphrodite to the hot-eyed young men with handle-bar moustaches. Entries for November read:

"The B-s have sent out invitations for the first dance of the season. I have a new dress—a canary color silk, covered with clouds and clouds of tulle. Mama thinks it is too decollete—only that's not the word she used. She is wondering how I am going to wear it, and at one and the same time wear my long-sleeved, high necked underwear. She'll manage it some way.

"It's going to be a swell dance. Ices from the city and favors and an Italian conductor for the music. They haven't a very big hall so it's nice to be invited as they have to leave some one out.

The G-s went serenading last night. B—and I heard in the afternoon that they were coming. About nine o'clock we decided to make a cake and ask them in. Mrs. M—didn't see how we could make a cake at nine o'clock at night—she thinks it's a sacred rite or something and shouldn't be attempted without proper ceremony, but the Judge built the fire for us and we baked it.

Group Takes Bus To Luray Caverns

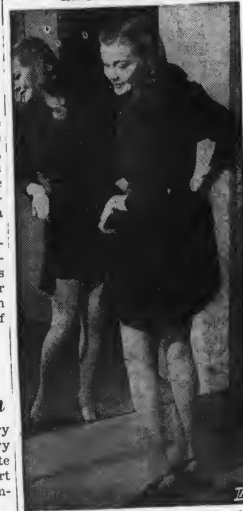

On October 10, a group of thirty-four M.W.C. girls went by way of the college bus to Luray, Virginia where they visited the Luray Caverns. Accompanying the students were Dr. O. H. Darter, faculty sponsor for the trip, and Dr. M. Erdelyi.

Before visiting the caverns, the group stopped for lunch at an observation point on the Skyline Drive. After lunch the students toured the caverns and then stopped at the Singing Tower to hear the Carillon Concert. The party returned to the campus at 6:00 P. M.

Calendar

- Oct. 19 Assembly Y—Devotional Program.
- Oct. 20 Convocation — Movie, "Recent Development in Korea."
- Oct. 22—Assembly—Student Government.
- Oct. 22 8 o'clock movie — "Historic Kenmore."
- Oct. 23 Korny Carnival.
- Oct. 23 Jr. Horse Show.
- Oct. 24 Horse Show.
- Oct. 29 "A Murder Has Been Arranged."
- Oct. 20 "A Murder Has Been Arranged."

"NEW LOOK" LEG APPEAL

Mary Alice Ward models the newest "look" in hosiery — seam-free nylons with a new, smooth-fitting double gusset heel. No crooked seams to mar her shapely legs; no ugly heel re-inforcements to spoil her open shoe line. These stockings are available in all leading brands with seal of the Dancing Twins.

Reporter Finds Ideas Vary As To A Perfect Weekend

What is the light of an M. W. C. girl's life? What keeps her living instead of merely existing? What sends her through a dull routine of classes with a light step and a look of anticipation in her eyes?

If you think she is that interested in her classes, the odds are against you. She's probably dreaming of the wonderful time she had with Joe last weekend or she is hurrying to pack a bag in order to make the 11:42 bus Saturday.

What is this thing called a week-end? It seems to be a constant topic of conversation. Every one has a different conception of what constitutes a "perfect" week-end. Shall we wander around the campus and get a few opinions?

One place to start is Willard. Carolyn Arnold, room 123, says, "My perfect week-end would be at the University of Kentucky. I really think the ideal week-end is spent with an 'important' man. Regardless of how much money he has, what 'frat' he belongs to, or how wonderful the school—that's still the major requirement with me."

"It's really remarkable how much better you like Mary Washington after a nice weekend away."

"Oh, I'd love to go to Virginia and Duke and Annapolis and West Point But where do I meet the men?"

We'll leave you to figure that out, Carolyn. Shall we stroll over to Virginia?

Kit Parker in room 201 gives us a few ideas as she packs her bag, "West Point is for me with a certain second classman. There'll be a dance after the game and strolls along Flirtation Walk to Kissing Rock. (You know they're always afraid it's going to fall. Frankly, I don't see how kissing keeps it suspended but who wants to argue!) Sunday we'll go to chapel and have a picnic in the afternoon Then sad farewells and a mad dash for the train back to M. W. C.

An anonymous junior in Westmoreland had a rather unique idea. She said, "My idea of a perfect weekend is peace and solitude with all my roommate. away. Just think of all the work I could do. Why I could study my psychology, do my calculus, and read that French novel. Oh, and maybe I could—"

Shall we leave her to her studies and see what a worldly-wise senior has to say. "Liz Barnes in 107 Madison rambled on in a rather incoherent manner. Her musings went something like this, "A perfect weekend at, shall we say, the University of Virginia. With (Oh, you know the type) some one tall, dark, who smokes a pipe. There must be a football game and a dance with Vaughan Monroe, followed by various and sundry frat parties. I'll get to bed by 6 A. M. We'll have lunch at noon and then go for a drive in the country. I'd love to have dinner at a little roadhouse with atmosphere, (fireplace, candlelight, etc.) If he'll bring me back to school at 10:29. (sigh!)"

Good luck, girls, we hope all those weekends are just as perfect as you planned them.

Trinkle Serenity Ain't What Its Cracked Up To Be

When there is a six-weeks test to study for, a term paper to write, and numerous parallel readings to do, gather up all your paraphernalia (under which you'll stagger) and trek off to the library.

The library! Ah, yes, the library, where peace and quiet reign supreme. Noise and confusion are not known here. The very atmosphere breathes silence, so urgently needed for concentration. So hurry up to the library about three minutes past seven with the other studious souls and begin your intensive studying.

Quietly tiptoe up the stairs and gently open the Browning Room door. A sudden gale hits you. Of course, it could be the wind in the tree. tops—outside, but the wind doesn't murmur quite so girlishly.

The gale blows right to the Reference Room where can be heard only the flipping of pages in big books. Well, this isn't all that can be heard as old friends meet again and talk over old times right around the center table.

Periodical Room

Pick up your books and trudge up the stairs to the Periodical Room. Here among the latest magazines you seek peace and quiet, but to no avail. Here behind newspapers and magazines you may find your suitmates discussing the latest heart-throb at Virginia Tech.

Finally in despair, but not quite at the hair-pulling stage, you march hopefully to the Reserve Room. Silence greets you at the door except for occasional mumblings over difficulties at the desk. At last! With a sigh of relief you sink down in the nearest chair, turn on the lamp, and open your books.

Happily you begin the first paragraph, when a ding-a-ling-ling disturbs your blissful concentration; somebody wants a book! All's forgiven, you go back to your book, and read on down the page. Suddenly you hear a loud popping noise. Glancing up, you find the girl next to you with her mouth wide-open absently popping a tremendous blob of blow gum.

"I'll settle this," you declare. You get up quietly and move to the next table.

You Start to Study

You get started once more in your next book. Contentment steals over you as you make more progress in your studying. The student across from you becomes puzzled and starts scratching her head. She leans over and wants to know the time, what's next on the Lyceum program, and why you wear your hair in braids.

The students behind you are having the giggles over a pair of socks their roommate is knitting. Unfortunately they can't control their hilarious laughter. Merciful heavens! Anything is better than this.

Flash! You get a brilliant idea. Why not do your parallel reading? You can check out a book for a few hours and take it back to your room, and try to read amidst the din of your roommate's bridge party. You ask at the desk for your book only to find that it's been checked out.

Out of Luck
"Oh, well, it really doesn't matter, as the library is ready to close anyway," the desk attendant tells you. You gnash your teeth, pull out a few strands of the hair that's left and quietly pick up all of your (Continued on Page 6)

JUDSON SMITH
Photographer

J & J Appliances

—RECORDS—

Radios - Victrolas

211 WILLIAM ST.

Phones: 1457, 1458

M.W.C. Girl Sells Handmade Leather Belts on the Side

Whether it's your roommate's birthday or whether you need a touch of "something different" to set off that new dress, Mary-Sue Ekelund has the answer to your problem. Mary Sue, a sophomore from Pontiac, Michigan, has combined college with a career in selling handmade, exclusively designed leather belts.

All Original Designs

While she was visiting in New Ulm, Minnesota, this summer, Mary Sue happened to find an old-fashioned leg brace of beautiful leather and took it to a saddle shop to see what could be made from it. She created three designs for belts, which she intended to give for Christmas gifts if they turned out all right. Every time she wore one of the finished products, it attracted so much attention and brought her so many compliments that she decided to go into business and sell them at college. The original three designs have grown to twenty, each one a distinctive and eye-catching pattern.

Besides the designs that she has made up herself, Mary Sue will accept any design you bring in, and in no more time than it takes to make it you will be wearing an outstanding belt of your own exclusive design. All of the belts are of beautiful saddle leather in different shades of brown and sell from $4.95 to $12.95.

Perfect Gift Solution

These belts make wonderful presents because of their individuality, but the only trouble is that if you go over to buy one for your sister, you'll probably end up with one for yourself, too. So, for the perfect solution to the Christmas-Birthday problem, hurry over to 202 Westmoreland and see if you're not glad that Mary Sue went into business!

"Korny Karnival" To Be October 23

Last year's A. R. A. Benefit, "Korny Karnival" was such a success that the association has decided to make it an annual affair. New attractions, the addition of a doorprize and a brand new routine that is guaranteed to be the best ever witnessed "on the Hill" are in order and promise fun for all. "Korny Karnival" is coming Saturday night, October 23rd in Monroe Gym and welcomes are extended to all—faculty, students, dates. Come early, stay late and have a terrific time.

She had a whim
for the social swim...
so she donned a

Judy Bond

JUDY BOND BLOUSES ARE SOLD
AT BETTER STORES EVERYWHERE
See them in Richmond at THALHIMER'S

Free booklet: "WARDROBE TRICKS". Write Judy Bond, Inc., Dept. B, 1375 Broadway, New York 10

Sunday Is Woeful Day For Many Who Stay On Hill

What is there about Sunday that makes collegiates such as we irritable . . . discontent? Did you ever wonder why you see so many beetle-brows and sagging under-lips on that glorious day of no classes? Since the general feeling of "I wanna go home" is so prevalent on the hill come the Sabbath day, this major problem is about to be analyzed very carefully . . . from a practical view-point, of course.

Obviously, the blame for 1,600 thwarted lives has to be put on something; and, in order not to hurt anyone's feelings, we shall dump the whole problem right in the lap of the "weather!" Now take any one of the balmy Sundays here in Fredericksburg: There's a glorious sun in the sky, the campus is loaded with dates, everyone is dressed to the teeth, and Mazie's parents are here with four boxes of food. It's just too

Cooking and Culture Mix, Says Women's College Prexy

One hundred years ago the first women's college in America was founded. Today educators are still undecided on what to teach women. The curriculum ranges from needlepoint to Gothic conjugations, according to the particular educator's concept of woman's role in life.

Dr. Homer F. Rainey, president of Stephens College, believes that women have multiple roles, and should be educated to fill all of them. In the November issue of PAGEANT magazine he says, "I feel that many educational institutions for girls are obsolete, from the finishing school . . . to the traditional college patterned after men's universities . . . Onesided training isn't education."

Educators must realize that women are no longer divided into two classes—the empty-headed housewife and the strident careerist. They have many interest in activities, for which neither the nunnery-like finishing school or the old-style classical academy prepares them. A well-rounded education for women should include equal helpings of the humanities and vocational training—as well as guidance in personality adjustment.

"The fullest, richest life includes both social and academic experiences," declares Dr. Rainey. His re-evaluation of educational aims presents a challenge no women's college can afford to ignore.

much! Everything is against you . . .

Put on Best for Church

This morning, for instance, it was such a bee-utiful day that you put on your "bestest" fall outfit for church. Ordinarily, dressing up puts you in a gay mood . . . but it backfires here! You gnash your teeth and scream, "If only my Lloyd could see me now!" So, before you rip the plumes off your twenty-dollar hat, you haul out the saddle shoes and baggy sweater and trudge over to the library to read a little parallel. The walk to the library may as well be called an obstacle course, for on the way you encounter six unattached gents, a crippled caterpillar that you try to help, and some poor soul in your Hygiene class who wants you to describe the clavicle to her.

Since it's sure disaster to try to brave the beautiful outdoors, and it's living death to sit inside looking out at the other half, you end up snuggled up in your own narrow little bed, smothering under Grandma's hand-stitched quilt, and dreaming about V. M. I.'s Homecoming Dances.

On the other hand, if there is nothing but a muggy sky overhead, you know very well that you'll do nothing all day but sit solemnly on the edge of your unmade bed and wish for old Sol. Then, if you use the weather as an excuse for not attending church, your conscience hurts horribly, and if you do go, you slip and fall in the mud . . . and you hurt elsewhere. You can't win . . .

So, to those who can muster up enough energy to wear huge smiles of a Sunday, we say "Congratulations!" . . . and to those with wistful countenances, we don't say anything; we just clasp them by their hands and lead them tenderly to their beds.

Late to bed and early to rise
Makes a man saggy
Draggy and baggy
Under the eyes

Extra Cash Each Week $25 IS YOURS!

Sell only 50 Boxes
CHRISTMAS CARDS
30 cards with name-imprinted sells for $1.00
YOUR PROFIT 50c PER BOX

IT COSTS NOTHING TO TRY!

FREE SAMPLES
of our 3 fastest-selling personal imprinted lines

21-Card De Luxe Assortment on approval
FREE: Sample Book and Sales Guide

Tells you how to sell—where to sell—and complete details so that you can start making money RIGHT NOW!

CREATIVE ART PUBLISHERS, Inc.
45 Warburton Ave., Dept. CP,
Yonkers 2, N. Y.

Meet Your Friends
for a

SANDWICH and a
COKE at

MORTON'S

"Your Friendly Druggist"

MARGOLIS'

SHOES

for the

ENTIRE FAMILY

807 Caroline Street

Horse Show To Be Held October 23-24

The Fredericksburg Horse Show sponsored by the Hoof Prints Club of M. W. C. will be held Saturday and Sunday, October 23 and 24. Saturday will be the Junior Division and Sunday the Hunter and Jumper Division.

On both days the show will begin promptly at 1:00 P. M. A bus will leave Chandler Circle at 12:45 for all those wishing transportation to the stables which are 2 miles west of Fredericksburg on Route 3. Admission is 75c, tax included.

An advisory committee of local horsemen and women is cooperating with Hoof Prints in putting the show on. The officers of the Hoof Prints Club are Carol Bailey, president; Betty Lou Shelhorse, vice-president; Elizabeth Erauer, secretary; and Betty Funnell, treasurer.

Interview will concern the views and interesting experiences of Hoof Prints President Carol Bailey. Later on Ann will interview Mr. Walther and other outstanding jocks on campus. Don't forget to listen in, whether you ride or not, it's bound to be interesting.

BRIDLE BITS

As this goes to press, Janet Young is making her first visit to the infirmary. Hope you're out right away, Janet... Carol Bailey slipped away October 2 to see the Madeira School show at McLean, Va., and reports that the gals there can't hold a candle to our jocks... Carol is bringing her own horse down to the show... but tells us that The Black Duchess hasn't been worked so she's going to play steeplechase in the ring... Funny Newbill, Hoof Prints President, 1945-46, and 1946-47, paid us a flying visit on October 8. She really is looking good, and promises to be back for the show... Cavalry had a picnic at the cabin October 8 and the hot dogs, potato chips, cookies and roast marshmallows really were a good memo to Cavalry... let's have lot's more picnics like it. See you at the ring.

Reminder

You are asked to play off your tennis matches as soon as possible. The season is well underway and there are many of you who haven't as yet contacted your opponents. Deadlines will be posted soon—play your matches NOW!

Modern Lit. Club Meets To Decide Policies For Year

In its second meeting on October 11, in Trinkle Library, the Modern Literature Club drew up a tentative state of officers and established the following policies for the year:

1. The organization, sponsored by Dr. Whidden and Dr. Vogelback, will informally discuss books, movies, plays, and poetry which have a contemporary interest.
2. By finding out in an informal, personal way just what modern literature has to offer, the club hopes to bring its members more fun and enjoyment in their reading.
3. A suggestion box will give members the opportunity to criticize constructively the operation of the club and to make requests for the discussion of subjects in which they are especially interested.
4. Definite programs concerning various modern literary trends, authors, and poets will be planned on the basis of these requests.
5. Members are not expected to be critics or brain-trusters; they should be genuinely interested in literature and willing to share their opinions about it with fellow club-members.

Modern Literature Club meets on the second and fourth Monday of every month. The first meeting of the month is at seven o'clock in Trinkle 2; the second at five o'clock in the Student Activity Room in Virginia Hall.

One need not be an English Major nor have a specific scholastic average to join the Modern Literature Club, and members of all classes are welcome. A short informal paper (maximum length one page of composition paper) is required of all prospective members. These papers should be in before the next meeting on October 25th at five o'clock in the Student Activity Room.

See Nancy Powers in Ball 203 about papers and further information.

DRY CLEANERS SHELTON AND TRUSLOW

Phone 523-1006 Caroline St.

J. C. Penney Co.

Department Store

The Home of Values

825 CAROLINE ST.

Fredericksburg, Va.

Joseph H. Ulman

Feminine Fashions
RIDING TOGS—GOSTUME
JEWELRY
822 Caroline St., Fredericksburg

Prof. Jusstewpid's Course Health Through Exercise?

Parties At Cabin Mean Fun For All

What are you doing this weekend? No dances, no dates, no weekend trips? How about a Saturday night party at the cabin? We'll get the food Saturday afternoon, no classes then. Cards, sure—bridge is swell for relaxation and no one studies on weekends. Then, there's always "pass the shoe" and silly games like that. If it's warm enough we can sleep outside. The best part, though, is Sunday morning—sleep late, breakfast over the open fireplace and just loaf around 'till noon.

Does this sound good? Many have already taken advantage of the cabin and found out for themselves what fun is to be had. Upperclassmen get together with last year's crowd on their hall and freshmen just get together. If you would like to go to the cabin, get in touch with Jamie Lou Lisle, E. L. 20, arrange for one of the faculty to chaperone and have a wonderful weekend right here on campus. Better hurry, though—weekends are going fast!

'Karnival' To Have Many Amusements

For amusements such as visiting a spook house, throwing balls at a clown's mouth, or consulting a wishing well the "Korny Karnival," sponsored annually by A.R.A., is being held in Monroe Gym, October 23 from 7:30-10:00 p. m.

At the "Karnival" there will also be a miniature golf course, bingo games, a snake charmer, and an extra special fortune teller, supposedly one of the faculty. The modern dance club is giving a side show.

The main event of the evening will be a floor show.

A.R.A. girls will be selling tickets for general admission to the "Korny Karnival" which will be fifteen cents. The side shows and the booths will be from one to ten cents. Hot dog, cokes, and ice cream will be on sale, as at any carnival.

Trinkle Serenity

(Continued from Page 4)

books. There is a fiendish idea at the back of that brain; you walk down to the amphitheatre, give a frankenstein laugh and throw all your books into the darkness.

After this ordeal, you are a full-fledged member of the Non-Study Anonymous Club organized for the benefit of all those people with good intentions who never get a chance to use those good intentions.

SEE YOUR
DORMITORY
REPRESENTATIVE

KENMORE
Cleaners
Phone 3151

Compliments of

ULMAN'S

Lifetime Jewelry

903 Caroline Street

Are you tired, rundown, dissipated, listless? Then what you need is Professor Jusstewpid's course in "Health Through Exercise." This course is granted to pep you up, fill you full of energy, and make you the life of the party (if you are ever invited to a party and if you survive the course).

The first step in the professor's course is to get plenty of sleep from two o'clock a. m. to about twelve o'clock p. m. In carrying out this step you may run into a little difficulty with your classes but once you explain the situation to your professors I am confident that they will excuse you from further attendance. And if at the end of the semester your parents don't exactly approve of your grades just tell them about your wonderful improvement in health.

As his second object the professor chooses that of better eyesight so that you will be better able to see while out on a date and won't stumble on that dark path behind the library and in so doing drag your date to destruction. To prevent harm to eyes the professor positively admonishes you not to read anything except light novels and magazines and to shun text books as the plague. This latter is most important and must be adhered to strictly. Of course this prohibits the doing of all home work, term papers, and passing of all tests.

For his final step to perfect health, Professor Jusstewpid says "Never walk as this creates muscle and body tone." Along this line he finds the night air as inhaled from an automobile while in the company of a young man especially beneficial.

Member of English Field Hockey Team Visits MW Campus

The college will have as its guest on Monday and Tuesday of this week Miss Meagan Davies, one of the members of the English field hockey team that toured the United States last fall giving exhibition matches. Miss Davies, who plays in the wing position, was an outstanding player as well as the youngest of the group.

The first of September she gave her services at Miss Applebee's hockey camp in Pennsylvania, helping the American enthusiasts to better learn the hard drives and the accurate team play of the British and since then has been available for coaching at various colleges in the East. An invitation is extended to all students to come to the field either afternoon to receive the benefit of her instruction.

Terrapin Welcomes Five New Members

At the annual initiation picnic last Thursday evening, Terrapin Club welcomed Eleanor Evans, Jane Bartley, Jo Ridgely, Betty Wilkerson and Diane Winters. Skits were presented by the new members followed by the taking of the "oath of membership."

The next event on Terrapin's calendar will be the exhibition which takes place sometime between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

KEEZELL'S

We Feature
HANDSEWN LOAFER
and
BASS SADDLE

Across from Victoria Theatre

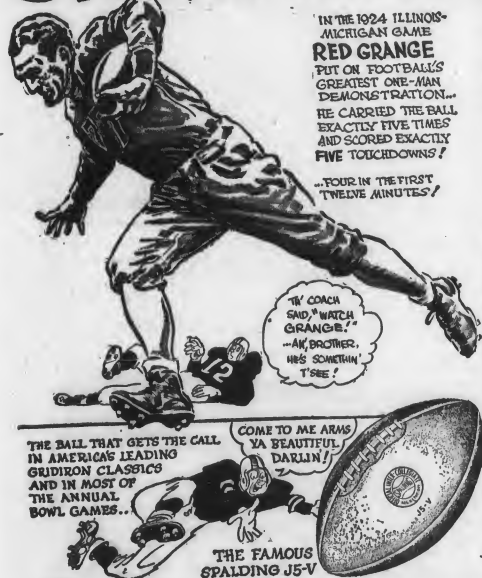

Now that horse show time is drawing near, more and more of the old riding alumni are showing up on campus and at the stables. Seen working out Don Juan last Tuesday was Bev Payne, a local gal. Bev is getting the Don in good shape for the show and intends to show us a thing or two.

Cavalry had its first drill meeting in the Big Gym on October 7. We missed the meeting, unfortunately, but have been informed that an instructive and hilarious time was had by all, with only a few mistakes being made. Don't forget that there will be a business meeting in the Monroe, and drill meetings the third and fourth Thursdays. November 4th will be the second business meeting for Cavalry, and the tentative plans for the meeting include the latest film made by Captain Littauer, the famous forward seat man. This film is in color and was taken last June down at sweet Briar College, at the course for riding instructors. You all should plan on attending the meeting and seeing this interesting film.

Did you know that there is a program on WMWC for everyone interested in riding. An enterprising sophomore, Ann Marquis, is running a program entitled "Tack-Room Chatter" every Friday afternoon at 4:00. The first program was October 15, with Ann interviewing the Captain of Cavalry, Betty Funnell. Next Friday the

SPALDING SPORTS SHOW

SPALDING
SETS THE PACE
IN SPORTS

WASHABLE

"WELL, WELL— THE SHINING KNIGHT IN WHITE ARMOR, THE GAY
LOTHARIO FROM THE WEST, THE BEAU BRUMMEL OF PARK AVENUE
—COME IN, JERK!"

For the following JOKES (?) the Bullet is deeply indebted to a girl who went to Washington and Lee and brought back a copy of The Southern Collegian.

"My boy friend is serving on an island in the Pacific."

"Which island?"

"Alcatraz."

Lady Visitor: "Do you sailors wash your own clothes on ship-board?"

Sailor: "No, lady. We just throw them overboard and they're washed ashore."

Scientists at Washington and Lee have rejected the theory that ice at the South Pole is sufficiently heavy to tip over the world in a high wind.

"A pinch of salt is greatly improved by dropping it into a glass of beer."

First Old Maid: "I shiver every time I think of a handsome man kissing me."

Second Old Maid: "And here I've been thinking you had St. Vitus dance all these years."

Pressing Rooms Resemble Grand Central Station

The pressing rooms take on the air of Grand Central station after dinner, especially on Friday and Saturday nights, and Sunday mornings. And it certainly is a friendly and lively place, to say the least. It is known for a fact that people have entered the inner sanctum complete strangers, and walked out the best of "buddies." All topics are thoroughly discussed and torn apart, and opinions given on every subject from the best tactic to use regarding your recent unfinished and not-handed-it-yet term paper to the best tactic concerning your pet Navy man.

A really fascinating place to be is in one of the shower-and-pressing rooms combined, especially at about 9 o'clock in the evening. You have the privilege of listening to the impromptu recitals of potential Lily Pons and Jo Stafford doing their vocal best in the showers; and among the seemingly endless line waiting for their turn under the alternately streaming hot and icy showers, you will find an eager Russian student, a poor suffering History major, and a gal with three men and a problem on her hands.

And then, too, we have the opportunity of watching the "New Look" advocates working like peons to iron, erase, eradicate, and generally get rid of that "last year's line" in the hem of the cottons of the past season. It's fun—especially when you end up by scorching the hem, the ironing board and your temper—and find "that line (!)" still there!

Yes, we may have our troubles when we delve into the mysteries of higher homemaking—but just think of the wonderful skirt-presser-scorchers we'll make as wives!

M.W.C. Band Plays At Games

The Mary Washington band in their new uniforms played at the dog show held at James Monroe High School, Saturday, October 16. The band is going to Washington to play for George Washington University this Friday night and on November 13, they go to Richmond to play for the University of Richmond in its homecoming game against V.P.I.

Miss America of 1947, Barbara Jo Walker of Memphis, models a washable evening gown of ballerina pink chintz at a recent meeting of laundryowners. The material is a new washable fabric marvel developed through co-operative efforts of manufacturers and the laundry industry.

"I smoked CHESTERFIELDS between scenes while making my new picture,
JOHNNY BELINDA,
they're Milder...
It's MY cigarette."

Jane Wyman

STARRING IN
JOHNNY BELINDA
A WARNER BROS. PICTURE

Joyce Hodgins, ABC GIRL of Penn State says—
"I smoke Chesterfields because they are the right cigarette for me. They're Milder and their taste and my taste agree."

MORE COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE CHESTERFIELDS
than any other Cigarette... BY LATEST NATIONAL SURVEY

A B C CHESTERFIELD
MAKE YOURS THE MILDER CIGARETTE... They Satisfy

Copyright 1948, LORETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

PITTS' THEATRES

VICTORIA

Sat. continuous from 1 p. m.
Afternoon, 3:15; Night 7-9;

Tuesday, October 19

Bud Abbott - Lou Costello in
"THE NOOSE HANGS HIGH"
Also Sportreel

Wednesday-Thursday, Oct. 20-21

Mickey Rooney - Gloria
DeHaven in
"SUMMER HOLIDAY"
Filmed in Technicolor
Also News - Novelty

Friday-Saturday, Oct. 22-23

James Craig - Lynn Bari in
"MAN FROM TEXAS"
Also News - Cartoon

Sun.-Mon.-Tues, Oct. 24-25-26

Fred MacMurray - Valli in
"THE MIRACLE OF THE BELLS"

with Frank Sinatra
Sunday Shows: Continuous
from 3 P. M.

COLONIAL

Afternoon, 3 P. M.; Night 7:15 &
9:15. Sat. continuous from 1:30.

Tuesday, October 19

James Cagney - George Raft in
"EACH DAWN I DIE"
Also News

Wednesday - Thurs, Oct. 20-21

Warner Baxter - Fay Baker in
"GENTLEMAN FROM NOWHERE"
—HIT NO. 2—

John Wayne in
"MAN FROM UTAH"

Friday-Saturday, October 22-23

Allan Lane in
"THE WILD FRONTIER"
Also News - Comedy - Novelty

Monday-Tuesday, Oct. 25-26

William Bishop - Virginia
Patton in
"BLACK EAGLE"
Also News - Cartoon